ADRO — Launch Teaser (Eye POV · Gucci × Oura style)

9:16 vertical · 20 s · 14 shots · true first-person through his eyes · no faces · phone screens and text composited in edit

وش تغيّر عن السكربت الأصلي:

- الكاميرا هي عيونه: كل لقطة من عيون الشخص نفسه، تتحرك مثل راسه، ويدينه ما تطلع إلا من تحت الكادر مثل ما تشوفها في الواقع. لابس ساعة سوداء بدون ماركة، وأكمام ثابتة لكل جزء من اليوم.
- الإيقاع: بدال 5 لقطات × 3 ثواني، صارت 14 لقطة × ثانية تقريباً، والقطع على حركة اليد.
- الإضاءة: بدال البارد والباهت، صارت صفراء دافية، وألوان قوية، وحبيبات فلم.
- الزوايا: كلها من عيونه: وهو منسدح، ويطالع تحت، وتحت البار، ويقرب الجوال لعيونه.
- الأرقام: تطلع على شاشة الجوال في يده، بشاشات Adro الحقيقية بالكود، بدال الكروت الطايرة.
- القفلة: كلمات متباعدة مثل Gucci، والضوء الأزرق من تحت الجوال يصير دائرة الشعار.

GLOBAL STYLE — paste at the start of every prompt

Cinematic 35mm film look, vertical 9:16, true first-person point of view through the man's own eyes, camera at eye height moving exactly like his head with natural small head turns and breathing sway, his own hands and body only enter the frame from the bottom edge the way you see them in real life, his right wrist wears a plain matte black sport watch with no logo, warm tungsten practical lighting with deep soft shadows, rich saturated ambers, deep reds and dark greens with subtle cool blue accents, heavy soft film grain, gentle halation on highlights, shallow depth of field with creamy bokeh, no faces visible, no mirrors showing a face, realistic skin texture, natural hand anatomy with five fingers, no text, no logos, no brand names, any phone or device screen is plain dark and blank
```

Continuity (what he sees of himself): Morning = dark green knit sleeve · Midday = white t-shirt sleeve, bare forearm · Gym = black training t-shirt sleeve, chalk on fingers · Night = dark green knit sleeve · same black watch in every shot.

MORNING · 0–4 s

1 Alarm 0.0–1.0 s

POV lying in bed, eye level with the nightstand · cut on the tap

First-person view through his eyes lying on his side in bed at dawn, head on a white pillow, looking across at a dark walnut nightstand at eye level, a smartphone lies face-up on it with a dark blank screen, his right hand with a dark green knit sleeve and the black watch reaches out from the white sheets at the bottom of the frame and taps the phone, warm amber light leaking through curtains, slow sleepy head movement

2 Good morning 1.0–2.0 s

POV, phone held close to the eyes

```
First-person view through his eyes sitting up in bed, he brings the smartphone up close in front of his eyes, the dark blank screen faces him and fills the lower half of the frame, warm lamp bokeh behind, slight drowsy head sway, eyes slowly focusing
```

Edit: Adro screen: “Good morning.” + one small blue dot

3 Scale 2.0–3.0 s

POV looking down at his feet

```
First-person view through his eyes standing in a bathroom looking straight down at his own bare feet stepping onto a slim glass bathroom scale on patterned green and cream ceramic tiles, the scale display is blank, warm golden window light across the floor, the head tilts down slowly

4 Result 3.0–4.0 s

POV, phone at eye level

```
First-person view through his eyes standing at a marble bathroom sink, he raises a smartphone in front of his eyes with his right hand wearing the dark green sleeve and black watch, the screen is dark and blank, a water tap runs softly below, warm bathroom light, the mirror is out of frame
```

Edit: Phone screen: −0.4 kg ▼ (green arrow)

MIDDAY · 4–7 s

5 Meal 4.0–5.0 s

POV looking down at the counter · cut on the plate touching the counter

```
First-person view through his eyes standing at a dark green marble kitchen counter looking down, his two hands at the bottom of the frame, the right one wearing the black watch with a white t-shirt sleeve, set down a white ceramic plate of sliced grilled chicken breast and white rice with a fork, a glass of water beside it, warm midday sunlight with hard shadows, rich colors
```

6 Snap 5.0–6.0 s

POV, phone between his eyes and the plate

```
First-person view through his eyes, he holds a smartphone horizontally above the plate of grilled chicken and rice at chest height as if taking a photo, the back of the phone is toward the food and the dark blank screen faces his eyes, warm daylight, the food softly visible beyond the phone
```

Edit: Phone screen: 41 g protein · 18 g left

7 Water 6.0–7.0 s

POV drinking, bottle comes toward the camera

```
First-person view through his eyes, he lifts a cold clear glass water bottle covered in condensation droplets toward his mouth, the bottle rises into the bottom of the frame and tilts toward the camera, warm backlight making the droplets glow, slow motion, his black watch visible on the wrist

GYM · 7–12.5 s

8 Chalk 7.0–8.0 s — POV looking down at his hands

```
First-person view through his eyes looking down at his own hands with a black training t-shirt sleeve and the black watch pressing into a bowl of white chalk, a soft cloud of chalk dust rises toward the camera in a single warm spotlight beam in a dark gym, slow motion, deep amber and black tones
```

9 Grip 8.0–9.5 s — POV lying on the bench, looking up · cut on the fingers tightening

```
First-person view through his eyes lying on his back on a flat bench in a dark gym, looking straight up at a loaded olympic barbell on the rack above his face, his two chalked hands rise into the frame and grip the bar, the black watch on the right wrist, warm overhead pendant lights create bokeh behind the bar, slow push-in as he settles
```

10 The number 9.5–10.5 s — POV glancing down to the floor

```
First-person view through his eyes sitting on the end of a gym bench, he glances down to the floor where a smartphone is propped against a water bottle, the screen is dark and blank, his chalked hand with the black watch reaches down and taps the screen once, warm low light, rubber floor texture
```

Edit: Phone screen: 80 kg → 82.5 kg · You've got this.

11 The lift 10.5–11.5 s — POV under the bar, looking up

First-person view through his eyes lying on a bench, looking straight up as a loaded barbell rises smoothly away from his chest toward the ceiling lights in slow motion, his arms and chalked hands extend into the frame from the bottom, black iron plates with warm rim light, chalk particles floating in the air

12 Rack 11.5–12.5 s — POV · cut on the bar hitting the hooks

```
First-person view through his eyes lying on the bench, the barbell is pushed back onto the steel hooks above his head with a firm motion, the camera shakes slightly on impact, chalk dust falls toward the camera, the black watch glints in the warm light, then his gaze drifts up to the ceiling lights

NIGHT · 12.5–15.5 s

13 Recovery 12.5–14.0 s — POV lying in bed, phone above the face

```
First-person view through his eyes lying in bed at night, he holds a smartphone above his face with his hand in the dark green knit sleeve and black watch, the screen is dark and blank and gives off a faint glow, a warm bedside lamp glows at the edge of the frame, deep shadows, the ceiling barely visible behind
```

Edit: Phone screen: Recovery 82%

14 Lights out 14.0–15.5 s — POV lying in bed, same frame as Shot 1

```
First-person view through his eyes lying on his side in bed at night, the same eye-level view across the dark walnut nightstand as the morning, his hand places the smartphone face-down beside a small warm lamp and withdraws, the lamp light fades to black, his eyes slowly close, very slow motion
```

Edit: A thin blue glow leaks from under the phone as the lamp goes dark

LOGO REVEAL · 15.5–20 s — not generated, built in edit

Time	What happens
15.5–16.3	Black (#0A0A0B). The blue glow from under the phone stays alone and shrinks into one blue dot (#3355FF).
16.3–17.3	The dot draws into the open ring — never closes, never rotates.
17.3–18.0	The ring slides into the “o” of adro (white wordmark, blue ring).
18.0–20.0	Widely spaced words: Your AI gym coach · Coming soon · يشوف يومك كله... ويدرّبك عليه.

TRANSITIONS & AUDIO

- Hard cuts only, cut on his head or hand motion (starts in one shot, finishes in the next), on the beat.
- Shot 1 and Shot 14 share the same view from the pillow across the nightstand (morning → night); the night shot ends with his eyes closing.
- Warm, low, rhythmic beat building through the day.
- Foley on every cut: tap, water, plate, chalk, plates, bar on hooks.
- One beat of total silence when the lamp goes out; soft chime when the ring draws.

HIGGSFIELD TIPS & COST

- Generate one reference image of his hand, sleeve and watch from his eyes first, and use it in every shot.
- Generate each shot at 3–4 s; only the best ~1 s is used.
- 2 variations per shot; keep the cleanest hands.
